

Spiritual Communion

Adapted from the prayer
by Saint Alphonse Liguori

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
please come spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you now
as if you were already there
and I unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me
to be separated from you.

Amen.

Spiritual Communion

by Saint Josemaria Escriva

I wish, Lord, to receive you with the purity, humility and devotion
with which your most holy Mother received you,
with the spirit and fervour of the saints.

Spiritual Communion

by Saint John Vianney

If we are deprived of Sacramental Communion,
let us replace it, as far as we can, by spiritual communion,
which we can make every moment;
for we ought to have always a burning desire
to receive the good God.

Communion is to the soul
like blowing a fire that is beginning to go out,
but that has still plenty of hot embers;
we blow, and the fire burns again.
After the reception of the Sacraments,
when we feel ourselves slacken in the love of God,
let us have recourse at once to spiritual communion.

When we cannot go to the church,
let us turn towards the tabernacle;
no wall can shut us out from the good God.

Prayers of Spiritual Communion

(text from Archdiocese of Vancouver)

When we are unable to receive Holy Communion sacramentally, we can receive great graces and blessings by expressing our desire to do so in what is called a “Spiritual Communion”. This practice goes back many centuries and has a rich tradition.

There are different models for doing this, but they all have these steps in common:

Make an act of faith: Jesus, I believe that You are really present in the Holy Eucharist...

Make an act of love: Jesus, I love You because You are all-good and deserving of my love...

Make an act of desire: I want to receive You in Holy Communion, the Gift You have chosen above all others to share Yourself and Your life with me...

Invite Jesus to come into your heart: Please come into my heart, my life and everything I do...

Thank Him for being truly within your heart and soul.

You can simply use these words or expand on them in your own way. Remember to pray for others too, just as you would if you were at Mass and receiving sacramentally / physically.
