September 21, 2025: 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You cannot be the slave both of God and of money.”

In today's Gospel, the Master is God and we are the managers of his property. God is the opposite of a self-interested master. His unfathomable love for us means that he dedicates himself to our well-being, providing us with gifts to help us to have the ultimate gift in heaven. Heaven is not guaranteed; we, like the manager, will have to account for the way we have used God's gifts. It is not too late to make sure that we are serving the master we wish to serve. To serve God faithfully with the gifts he has given us means doing our utmost to emulate his selfless, merciful love.

Remember in Your Prayers

- ✚ For those who are sick, in hospital or dying; for the poor; and for the unborn children and their parents; that through our presence and care, we may bear witness that every life has value and that no life is worthless.
- ✚ For all who are coping with hardship and financial stress, and for communities in need, that we be generous to offer assistance and friendship.
- ✚ We pray that inspired by St. Francis we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect. (Pope's prayer intention for September)

Marriage Tip – Vulnerability is a great gift spouses give each other. When your spouse is vulnerable, be sure to be gentle. It takes courage and humility to trust someone with your deepest fears or hurts.

Did You Know? – Why are there 3 steps before our church sanctuary? In St. Hyacinthe Church and in many older Catholic churches, the 3 steps are not without meaning. They represent the Trinity: step 1, God the Father, source of all; step 2, God the Son, Word made flesh; step 3, God the Holy Spirit, who sanctifies. The sanctuary is not just a stage. It's a meeting place between Heaven and Earth, and the 3 steps are the path into that divine mystery.
