Monthly Prayer Intentions of Pope Leo XIV

For collaboration between different religious traditions.

Let us pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice and human fraternity.

Pope Leo XIV releases his first Apostolic Exhortation, Dilexi te (“I have loved you”)

Thursday, October 9, 2025 - Pope Leo XIV released his first Apostolic Exhortation, Dilexi te (“I have loved you”), on the Church’s care for the poor. Drafted by Pope Francis before his death and now revised and issued by Pope Leo XIV, the Exhortation is in continuity with Pope Francis’ last encyclical, Dilexit nos (“He has loved us”), on the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Pope Leo emphasizes that “love for the Lord . . . is one with love for the poor” (n. 5). Divided into five chapters, the Exhortation outlines God’s identification with the poor (chapter 2), the centrality of the poor in the Church’s life (chapter 3), the development of the Church’s social doctrine over the past 150 years (chapter 4), and the challenge facing the Church today (chapter 5). In his accompanying letter addressed to the Bishops of the world, Pope Leo outlines his hope for this Apostolic Exhortation: “May Dilexi te help the Church to serve the poor and help bring the poor to Christ.”

The Apostolic Exhortation Dilexi te is now available on the Holy See’s website by clicking here

IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO REGISTER!* 2025 Diocesan Study Days – October 23 or 25, 2025

This year's theme for Saint-Boniface's Diocesan Study Days is Sexuality and Identity: Catholic Pastoral Accompaniment.

- Fr. Kevin Belgrave, professor at St. Augustine Seminary in Toronto who teaches on bioethics, foundations of moral theology, human sexuality, and Catholic social teachings. He'll be speaking to us about the Catholic anthropology of human sexuality.
- Dr. Julia Sadusky, clinical psychiatrist from Colorado who offers individual, family, and couples therapy in addition to consultations for individuals and families around sexuality and gender, and author of Start Talking to Your Kids about Sex: A Practical Guide for Catholics and Talking with Your Teen about Sex: A Practical Guide for Catholics.

He is also chaplain for EnCourage, an apostolate that helps its members work together to understand the experiences of their loved ones, and to respond to them with compassion.

LAST CHANCE TO REGISTER!* Guiding Our Children in Truth and Love
- October 24, 2025

As parents, one of the most important roles we have is guiding our children in understanding the beauty of their bodies, sexuality, and identity in light of God's truth. Yet, these conversations can often feel overwhelming, especially in today's culture. How do we begin? When is the right time? How can we ensure that what we share reflects both our faith and the love we hold for our children?

The Archdiocese of Saint Boniface is hosting an event at Mary Mother of the Church designed to support parents of both young children and teens, offering wisdom, tools, and encouragement for the journey. Dr. Julia Sadusky, a Catholic clinical psychologist, author, and speaker, will be sharing her insights on how to begin age appropriate conversations with children about sex, the body, and identity.

Rooted in Catholic teaching and compassion, this evening will leave you better equipped to foster conversations filled with both truth and love -helping your family grow together in faith and understanding. Join us on October 24th 2025 7:00pm @ Mary Mother of the Church Parish Hall.

Registration required. Please scan the QR code.

This event will be in English only. Please call Grace Dumont at 204-594-0275 if you have any questions. For poster, click here.

NEW* Diaconate Formation Update – Request for Prayers

We ask you to support the candidates for the permanent diaconate in their final year of formation with your prayers. -
Deacons Gilles Lorteau and Michael Thibert - Co-Directors of the Diaconate Formation Program

DAVID FOIDART

Parish: Blessed Sacrament Parish,
Archdiocese of St. Boniface
Ministry of Charity: Serving at L'ARCHE

Tanya Foidart

I was called by God to serve others both within the parish and in our greater communities, and following a year of discernment, my call to the permanent Diaconate was validated.

Guided by courses, prayer and a group of permanent deacons and their wives, we have been enriched and experienced tremendous spiritual growth and have gained a more in-depth and glorious look at our faith.

I take this Joy with me in my community outreach to enhance the lives of members of L'Arche, a group of six houses in our city that encourages the independent living of those challenged by physical and intellectual disabilities.

"I provide support to my husband with a listening ear and accompany him to the weekend session. I have enjoyed attending weekend sessions with David, the other candidates and their wives as well as with the Team." - Tanya

DANIEL BAHUAUD

Parish: Saints-Martyrs-Canadiens Parish,
Archdiocese of Saint Boniface
Ministry of Charity: Ministry to the
Separated and Divorced

I'd long felt a call over the years to serve the Church as a potential cleric, but it was while livestreaming the 2020 Easter Vigil at Holy Cross Parish during the COVID-19 pandemic that I clearly felt the Spirit calling me to the diaconate. Since then, the formation process has been one of continuous growth in God's grace and love for Jesus and the Church.

It is also challenging, as candidates must juggle online studies, in-person formation, ministry inside and outside the parish, and full-time work. The deepening and growth of my spiritual life has been a great help to me. The Lord is good!

My ministry of charity outside my parish is to accompany separated and divorced persons. Those who are experiencing a breakup in their relationships experience a great deal of pain and grief; they need a safe and sacred space where they can find their bearings, share their journey, pray, and find the soothing embrace of Christ.

There is a real need for this ministry, and over the last two and a half years, I've seen just how important it is to be present for them. To see the brokenhearted recover and rediscover themselves in joy is a tremendous blessing and a witness to God's gentle and infinite mercy.

"Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep." Rom 12:15

REMINDER* Follow-up to the presentation - in ENGLISH - 'Saint Carlo Acutis' by Mrs. Louise Normandeau, Saturday, September 27, 2025 at the St. Boniface Cathedral

For those of you who were unable to attend her presentation in English, on Saturday, September 27th, the video of her presentation is posted on the Saint Boniface Cathedral YouTube channel. REMINDER* Photo Gallery - Presentations on Saint Carlo Acutis

From September 17 to 29, Louise Normandeau traveled throughout the diocese to present Carlo Acutis, the saint of young people and internet users. The Quebec native worked tirelessly to give 24 presentations on the young man who was canonized on September 7. She visited three schools, five retirement homes, and 17 parishes, sometimes two or three times apiece, speaking to different age groups. All this to highlight the ardent faith of the young Italian who was buried in sneakers for Christ and his enthusiasm for Eucharistic miracles. In all, 1,257 people attended the gatherings and deepened their knowledge of the first millennial saint and the Real Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. Thank you to all the generous photographers. As an Indigenous-led non-profit organization delivering reconciliation workshops since 2001, Returning to Spirit is dedicated to fostering meaningful conversations and community engagement.

This fall in Winnipeg, we are hosting two upcoming Roots of Reconciliation workshops. While the design of both workshops is the same, each is offered separately for Indigenous and non-Indigenous participants and led by trainers from that community.

The reason? The conversations that unfold are shaped by who is in the room, and that difference matters.

NEW* Roots of Reconciliation Workshop for Non-Indigenous November 26-29, 2025

This 4-day experiential workshop invites participants to reflect on their own stories and perspectives, and to explore how these shape their relationships with others and with reconciliation. Through personal reflection, transformative exercises, and honest conversations, participants begin to see themselves, others, and the reconciliation journey in a new way. Free-will donations will be gratefully accepted.

"This workshop opened my eyes and my heart in ways I didn't expect. It changed how I show up in the world."

World Youth Day was established by St. John Paul II to remind young people that they have a vital place in the life and mission of the Church. Each year on this feast, dioceses around the world celebrate locally, connecting us to millions of other youth and young adults journeying in faith across the globe. I highly encourage all parish youth, young adults, leaders, and families to take part in these events as we live the joy of the Gospel and celebrate that the young Church is fully alive in Manitoba! Please consider making your November plans for Youth Ministry to involve these events!

Join us for a special evening of prayer, music, and reflection as we gather with Archbishop Albert LeGatt and Archbishop Murray Chatlain for our Local World Youth Day Vigil Night — a time for young people and youth ministers to come together in friendship and faith. This night will be filled with praise and worship, Scripture and creative storytelling, and adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. Together, we'll explore what it means to be a witness of Christ through friendship, walking alongside others as Jesus does — accompanying, listening, and bringing light into the lives of those around us. The vigil will include moments of reflection, multilingual prayer, and a special blessing as a young person. As a sign of unity and mission, participants will also receive and exchange friendship bracelets as a reminder that we are sent forth to be friends and witnesses to one another in the world. Come, rest in His presence, and be renewed in the joy of your calling. All youth, young adults, and ministry leaders are welcome.

Stewardship

October 26, 2025 - 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." LUKE 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember stewardship. All that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.
